

1870: The War Against the Empire

Available for Pre-Order. ETA Summer 2019. A grand-operational game on the first month/phase of the Franco-German war

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

Price £33.95

Ask a question about this product

Manufacturer CSL \(Conflict Simulations Limited\)

Description

Available for Pre-Order. ETA Summer 2019

1870 is a grand-operational game on the first month/phase of the Franco-German war, in which the combined armies of Germany overwhelmed the martial forces of Napoleon III in a lightning campaign of opportunity and maneuver taking only a month to overthrow the Second Empire. 1870 is heavily inspired by SPI's Wilderness Campaign, Mark Simonitch's US Civil War and the Great Campaigns of the American Civil War series.

- Units are SP, Corps and Army HQs.
- HQs have an ATK Bonus, DEF Bonus, and Movement Allowance
- In-hex combat | Defensive Chassepot fire | German Artillery Bombardments
- Leader Casualties, Fatigue, Disruption, Demoralization, and Exhaustion Statuses
- Part of the 2140 series, no more than 140 counters with a 22x17 inch map of France.

Design by Ray Weiss

Developed by Matt Ward

Counters by Ivan Caceres

Map by Ilya Kudriashov

WEIGHT: 7/10

SOLO: 8/10

PLAYERS: 1-2