Description

Board war game "Fortress Breslau in 1945" to see how the events took place in the besieged city between February 15 and May 6, 1945.

The advantage of the game is the opportunity to try alternatives. Players take on the role of the Red Army Commanders or garrison. They determine the directions of strokes and have the resources available. Their decisions affect the outcome of the fighting. This allows you to check whether the Russians could take the city in advance or whether the German defenders could effectively defend him. Each side has advantages. It depends on you whether you use them skillfully.

Los "Festung Breslau" is in your hands!

The complete game consists of:

- the board with dimensions of 48x68 cm
- 308 die-cut chips with dimensions of 12.5 x 12.5 mm,
- the principles of the book (12 pages)
- card scenarios
- six-sided cube.

Playing time: 6 hours.

The game is designed for two people over 12 years of age.
