

Granada: The Fall of Moslem Spain

This quick-playing, physically beautiful game re-creates the final 10-year struggle for Granada.

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

Price £27.95

Ask a question about this product

Manufacturer AVALANCHE PRESS

Description

For over 700 years, Spanish Christians tried to exterminate the Arab kingdoms of southern Spain. This great Reconquista fired the crusading zeal of countless generations. The Arabs, or Moors as they were known to the Spanish, saw the Spaniards as backward barbarians and fought ferociously to protect their sophisticated civilization. Finally, in 1482 King Ferdinand of Aragon embarked on the last campaign, to take the fabled city of Granada from its Islamic rulers.

This quick-playing, physically beautiful game re-creates the final 10-year struggle for Granada. Players take command of the Christian and Moslem holy warriors. God is on your side. Will you prevail?

Components: 120 large pieces, 22"x17" map, 8 page rules folder