A remake of the classic from Martial enterprises.

This is a grand tactical look at the battle of Borodino in September of 1812. It is a massive game, with units representing battalions, companies and regiments.

La Bataille de la Moscowa (la Moscowa=the Moscow River) is a simulation, on the regimental/battalion level of the Battle of Borodino, fought between Nap`s Grand Arme'e and the Russian First and Second West Armies under Prince Kutusow on September 7, 1812.

The game provides six short scenarios and a grand battle game.

The monster contains over 1400 counter and four maps.

The game is the Charles Roberts Award winner in 1976 and the 1st Edition from Marshall/ Martial Enterprises is the Grandmother of the La Bataille Series from Clash of arms.

scale = 100 m/hex; time = 20 min/GT; strength = 50-100 men/SP (Regimental/Brigade Size)
