Description LEATHERNECK is a scenario series depicting PTO actions from Wake to Okinawa and everything in between!

LEATHERNECK 3 features EIGHT brand new scenarios depicting PTO actions. The gyrenes welcome their 'special guests' to this set in the form of a special focus on the actions of the 96th and 77th Infantry Divisions. Sure, you'll get the Marines in action on Iwo Jima as two platoons of 21st Marine Regiment make their way to victory-in-sight on the embattled island. But the focus is squarely on the unsung heroes of the War in the Pacific. Remember their sacrifice to freedom! Each scenario has been reviewed by a blue ribbon panel consisting of expert players and your enjoyment is assured by a full money back guarantee of the purchase price if not 100% satisfied!

LEATHERNECK scenarios are OFFSET printed on bright white heavyweight cards and feature an offset printed presentation. They also feature some of the finest AFV art in the form of highly detailed and accurate line drawings, featured prominently on the cards.

Interesting actions that break the 'nothing but caves and beach landings mold'. That's what LEATHERNECK scenarios are all about.
