

Leibstandarte Pack 6: Normandie

1.SS-Panzerdivision Leibstandarte

Normandie

8 Scenarios Compatible with MMP's ASL System

8-Scenarios compatible with MMP's ASL™ System. Boards used: 4,6,10z,17,17z,42,53,54,55,56,57,59,69,70,71,t. Includes 12 2" Sherman Tank Counters

Rating: Not Rated Yet

Price

Price £12.95

Ask a question about this product

Manufacturer LONE CANUCK PUBLISHING

Description

8-Scenarios compatible with MMP's ASL™ System. Boards used: 4,6,10z,17,17z,42,53,54,55,56,57,59,69,70,71,t. Includes 12 ?" Sherman Tank Counters.

LSSAH 41 - Mouen, France, 28 June 1944: British spearheads of the 15th Scottish Division have advanced south, seizing bridges over the Orne River. The 1.SS-Panzerdivision Leibstandarte is ordered to launch an immediately counterattack to cut-off the penetration before the British can get a foothold.

Germans: 6½ Squads, 3 Leaders, 4 SW + 3 Panzer IVs with a Panzer Leader

British: 10 Squads, 3 Leaders, 5 SW + 3 Light Tanks

Map Boards: 2, Turns: 8

LSSAH 42 - Hubert-Folie, France, 18 July 1944: The British launch Operation GOODWOOD in the hopes to break into open tank country, southeast of Caen. The 1.SS-Panzerdivision Leibstandarte is rushed into a blocking position unseen by Allied observers and waits in ambush, directly in the path of the 3rd Battalion, Royal Tank Regiment.

Germans: 7½ Squads, 2 Crews, 2 Leaders, 6 SW, 2 Infantry Guns + 2 Assault Guns with a Panzer Leader

British: 6½ Squads, 3 Leaders, 3 SW, 3 Carriers, 5 Halftracks + 10 Sherman Tanks & a Sherman OP Tank

Map Boards: 2, Overlays: 3, Turns: 7

LSSAH 43 - Solders, France, 18 July 1944: Despite heavy losses, Operation GOODWOOD continued to grind its way forward, the battlefield littered with burning hulls of the British 11th Armoured Division. Shortly after midday, the 2/Fife and Forfar Yeomanry is ordered to capture the Bourgébus Ridge; simultaneously, the 1.SS-Panzerdivision Leibstandarte is ordered to counterattack.

Germans: 4 HS, Leader, 2 SW + 6 Panthers with 2 Panzer Leaders

British: 7 Squads, 2 Leaders, 3 SW, 7 Halftracks + 18 Sherman Tanks with Armour Leader

Map Boards: 3, Overlays: 1, Turns: 7½

ERRATA: Board Configuration, the letter "t" on Board "t" is in the wrong place - it should be at the top left of the Board (see picture for correct alignment)

LSSAH 44 - Tilly-la-Campagne, France, 25 July
1944: The Americans had launched Operation COBRA, at the same the Canadians had launched Operation SPRING; its objective to capture Point 122. On route the Canadians had to first clear Tilly-la-Campagne, where hidden among the smoulder ruins were the Pioniers, Panzergrenadiers, and Panzers the 1.SS-Panzerdivision Leibstandarte.

Germans: 8 Squads, 3 Leaders, 8 SW + 2 Panzer IVs

Canadians: 16 Squads, 4 Leaders, 15 SW, + 5 Sherman Tanks + OBA

Map Boards: 2, Turns: 7

LSSAH 45 - Saint Barthelemy, France, 7 August
1944: The Germans launched Operation LÜTTICH, its objective to recapture Avranches and cut-off Patton's 3rd Army spilling into Brittany. In the foggy morning hours, 1.SS-Panzerdivision Leibstandarte drove into Saint Barthelemy fully expecting the village to be cleared earlier by 2.Panzerdivision; but as the fog lifted, the lead elements found themselves fighting in close quarters with GIs of the 117th Infantry Regiment.

Germans: 8 Squads, 3 Leaders, SW, 6 Kubelwagens, 9 Halftracks, + 3 Panthers

Americans: 12½ Squads, 3 Leaders, 13 SW, 5 A-T Guns, 5 Halftracks

Map Boards: 4, Overlays: 1, Turns: 7½

LSSAH 46 - Saint Barthelemy, France, 9 August
1944: The 1.SS-Panzerdivision Leibstandarte attack ground to a halt. Overhead Allied Fighter-Bombers circled waiting to pounce. The US 117th Regiment, having received reinforcements that morning, launched a counterattack looking to retake ground earlier given up.

Germans: 5½ Squads, 2 Crews, 2 Leaders, 6 SW, 2 Medium Mortars, + 3 Panzer IVs with 9-1 Panzer Leader

Americans: 14½ Squads, 3 Leaders, 11 SW, + 6 Sherman Tanks with Armour Leader

Map Boards: 4, Turns: 7½

LSSAH 47 - Joue-du-Bois, France, 13 August
1944: Field Marshal Montgomery ordered the gap between Falaise and Alençon shut, hoping to trap a large portion of the German 7th Army within it. The 1.SS-Panzerdivision Leibstandarte received orders to hold open the narrowing corridor to allow the what was left of the 7th Army to withdraw out of the collapsing pocket.

Germans: 6 Squads, 4 Crews, 2 Leaders, 4 SW, 2 Medium Mortars, 2 A-T Guns

Americans: 15½ Squads, 4 Leaders, 13 SW + 5

Sherman Tanks + OBA

Map Boards: 4, Turns: 7½

.
LSSAH 48 - Saint-Lambert, France, 20 August
1944: The Allies' noose was tightening about the neck of the Falaise Pocket. The 1.SS-Panzerdivision Leibstandarte reduced to little more than a pair kampfgropes was tasked to lead the breakout out of the pocket.

Germans: 5 Squads, 2 Leaders, 3 SW, 7 Halftracks,
+ 4 Panzer IVs with a Panzer Leader

Canadians: 6 Squads, 2 Leaders, 4 SW + 8
Sherman Tanks with an Armour Leader

Map Boards: 2, Turns: 6½