Description

Game Only

Good Condition Punched Copy

Simulation of the Spanish - American War. There are 2 levels to the game : Strategic naval with area movement and operational land game with hex maps. Several introductory scenarios cover the naval battle at Santiago and land battles for San Juan Hill and the assault on Havana. The Campaign rules are separate, so it's possible to get accustomed to the game systems before attempting it. Some important factors are coal supply, blockade, torpedo attacks, naval search, bombardment, amphibious landings, yellow fever, and morale.
