Description

Open copy, slightly shop-spoiled, unpunched.

There is a small ding to the lid. The contents appear to be complete and are in overall excellent condition. The rules and player fleet sheets have rusty staples. Please note there is French text to all three map sheets (there is a spare map present). The counters remain unpunched.

This is a simple, tactical game. All you need is an opponent, one or two hours of your time and a sound strategy. Play with some of the units of some of the most prestigious fleets and meet in battle. Contains both historical and fictional scenarios. No scale given for turns or gameboard but counters represent individual ships in World War II.

Components are as follows: 160 counters, two identical map sheets (approx. 20"x22"), one rulebook
