Fighting ships in the age of sail! This is the original 1974 classic title details military engagements in the golden age of sail .

Players take their groups of ships(all named) and form their ship lines and then go at it.

The game comes with a large generic ocean map overlaid with a hex grid.

The ship counters occupy two hexes and include special rules for moving and firing with this design.

Players can begin with the smaller scenarios and work up to whole fleets engaged in pitched battle (16 historical scenarios).
